7th International German Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu
Championship 2007

Invitation

Dear martial art fans,

*like the years before, we would like to invite you to our 7th International German Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Championship (with and without gi) at October 20th/21st 2007.

Meanwhile this competition has grown to a big event, and a target date in the schedules of many fighters all over the world. Every year we try to make it a little bit better and hope to satisfy as many as possible.

For the first time the title of "International German Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Champion" will also be battled out for No-Gi BJJ.

Rules and divisions are the same like the BJJ with gi.

Also new are the money prizes in all open class divisions.

The competition is open to all stiles and federations, like Jiu-Jitsu, Judo, Ju-Jitsu, Wrestling, Luta Livre, etc!

Food and drinks are available at the competition.

We hope for numerous participants and wish everybody a successful and pleasant stay.

Best wishes

Michael Haselein

Rules:

Our rules agree with the international Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu rules!

Visible under: <http://www.ibjjf.org/rules.htm>

Allowed in blue to black belt, as well as in No-Gi BJJ, are straight leg locks and straight foot locks.

Explanation:

Minor differences in rules will be demonstrated before the competition starts!

In the first round of finals, there will be no points, only submission.

Fighters or teams can be disqualified for heavy violations of the rules (no refund of the fee, also if no participation of fighters)!

It's only allowed to fight in one division for the BJJ with gi (men, U20 OR master).

Men, Master, U20 and female fighters will fight in the same division for the No-Gi BJJ.

There will be no separate divisions of age and belt levels.
